Government Guerillas Attack

As if recounting a true story in a distressed, tearful manner

Sharp inhale

'matter-of-fact', panicked

Sharp inhale

As if recounting a true story in a distressed, tearful manner

retake breath in a staggered fashion when necessary

Safe in the shadows

We see the ye low dress in the dirt

By the thatched wall

We hear the dogs howl

We watch with hating eyes and the A-rubs shouts

We shall do the same.

We shall be sol-diers.
We shall be boy soldiers.

We shall be the Lord's soldiers.
