

Plate 04, i&ii: Evaluating Periodization<sup>1</sup>

1. Named issuers

Beonna's named moneyer's Efe
(One of three from Freckenham, Suffolk) and Werferth (Thetford, Norfolk), (SL113).

2-6. Joint issues

Ecgberht with Eadberht
(also see illustration above), (SL74)
Found: Seamer (rare two crozier variety)

Ecgberht with Alchred, (SL75)
Found South Newbald.

Ecgberht with Æthelwald Moll, (SL76)<sup>2</sup>
Found Driffield (?)

Eanbald I with Æthelred I, (SL78)
Found Thorpe-le-Street

<sup>1</sup> Source: Abramson collection.

<sup>2</sup> Stewart (1991). Booth, (1984), Alchred/Ecgberht 6. Pirie (1992a, Appendix).

Æthelwald Moll

L: with Æthelred (SL77), found Kilham. R: Æthelred I 'Double obverse' (SL81-10), found South Newbald

7. Literacy and inscriptions

Epigraphic southern sceats (SL24, 92 and 93 respectively):

Top row with 'porcupine' reverses, l-r: DE LUNDONIA/SCORUM, Runic Æthiliræd sceat, rare SEDE type.

Second row: SAROALDO type (SL7), found Wetwang, near Driffield, East Yorkshire

8. Consistency of type and extended duration

The 'Wodan/monster' sceat of Danish Series X

Ribe type (found Sheffield) and Insular variety (Warminster, Wiltshire), (SL103-4)

9. Mint place

Typical sceat of Hamwic
(SL48, unmatched obverse and reverse)

10. Successor coinage

Carolingian denier of Pepin III (751-68),

Dorestad, 0.92g, MEC 1,719. Found Melbourne, Cambridgeshire, Spink lot 0219 26-06-2013, ©Spink.