

Holocaust - Remembrance

for orchestra and SATB chorus

by Evelyn Stroobach

Holocaust - Remembrance

I dedicate this work to my great-uncle Abraham Samuel Fernandes (my maternal grandmother's brother), who was born in Paramaribo, Suriname¹ and who immigrated to the Netherlands before the Second World War. During the war, Abraham Fernandes was a resistance fighter and a member of the Geuzen underground group. For his activities in the resistance, he was arrested by the Germans and was beaten and tortured to death, in March 1941, at the Oranjestad, a German prison in Scheveningen, the Netherlands. Married and a father of a two year old and a baby, he was murdered when he was only 34 years old.

Abraham Samuel Fernandes
(1906-1941)

Abraham Fernandes was posthumously awarded the Resistance Cross (Verzetsherdenkingskrois) in 2009 from Queen Beatrix of the Netherlands for his activities with the Geuzen.

My choice to compose Holocaust – Remembrance for orchestra and SATB chorus, in 60-minutes and six movements, is symbolic of the six million Jews killed during the Holocaust. I also dedicate this work to the six million Jews who were murdered during the Shoah. With this work I wish to create awareness and educate audiences about the Shoah with the powerful message ‘never again’.

1 The Jewish community of Suriname, on the northeastern coast of South America, is the oldest continuous Jewish community in the Americas. During the Inquisition in Portugal and Spain in the late-fifteenth century, many Jews fled to Holland and to the Dutch colonies to escape torture and condemnation to the stake. Many of the Jews who went to Holland departed later for the Dutch colony of Suriname, arriving as early as the 1630s.

The musical score for page 31, measures 95-100, features a variety of instruments. The woodwinds (Bsns., C. Bn., Hns., B $\flat$ Tpts., T. Tbns., B. Tbn.) play a mix of eighth and sixteenth notes, often with slurs. The brass (Timp., Cast., T.B., B. Dr.) provides a rhythmic foundation with eighth notes. The strings (Vc., Cb.) play a steady eighth-note pattern. The percussion (Timp., Cast., T.B., B. Dr.) adds texture with various rhythmic patterns. The overall texture is dense and rhythmic.
