

University of York
York Graduate Research School
Research Degree Thesis Statement of Authorship

Note that where a paper has multiple authors, the statement of authorship can focus on the key contributing/corresponding authors.

Candidate name	Gabrielle Russell
Department	Theatre Film Television and Interactive Media
Thesis title	Towards a Feminised Mythography: a creative practice enquiry exploring mythic female characters from Early Welsh and Irish folktales as models for contemporary feminist films

Title of the work (paper/chapter)	Deer Woman Child [Film]
Publication status	Published	X
	Accepted for publication
	Submitted for publication
	Unpublished and unsubmitted
Citation details: (if applicable)	Public Screenings were held at the following film festivals: Liverpool International Film Festival November 2022 Toronto Women's Film Festival Jan 2023 Worldwide Women's Film Festival Pheonix February 2023 Women's International Film Festival June 2023 Little Venice Film Festival London October 2023

Description of the candidate's contribution to the work*	I am the screenwriter and director of this film
Approximate percentage contribution of the candidate to the work (if possible to describe in this way)	Not possible to describe in this way
Signature of the candidate

Date (DD/MM/YY)	20 September 2025
-----------------	-------------------

Co-author contributions

By signing this Statement of Authorship, each co-author agrees that:

- (i) the candidate has accurately represented their contribution to the work;
- (ii) if required, permission is granted for the candidate to include the work in their thesis (note that this is separate from copyright considerations).

Name of co-author	Sarah Corbett
Contact details of co-author	Sevengates55@gmail.com
Description of the co-author's contribution to the work*	Conceptualisation: Sarah Corbett worked on the ideas for the film and wrote an original short story on which I based the screenplay and film.
Approximate percentage contribution of the co-author to the work (if possible to describe in this way)	It is not possible to describe in this way.
Signature of the co-author
Date (DD/MM/YY)	28/09/25

Copy and paste additional co-author panels as needed.

*The description of the candidate and co-authors contribution to the work may be framed in a manner appropriate to the area of research but should always include reference to key elements (e.g. for laboratory-based research this might include formulation of ideas, design of methodology, experimental work, data analysis and presentation, writing). Candidates and co-authors may find it helpful to consider the approach to recognising individual author contributions.